CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The biddings to be regulated by the Auctioneers, if any dispute should arise, the lot in dispute may be put up again and resold or the Auctioneers may determine the dispute at their discretion, and their decision shall be final. The Auctioneers reserve the right to refuse the bid of any person without being called upon to give a reason for such action.
2. The Auctioneers reserve the right to bid on behalf of the vendor on any lot on which there may be a reserve. The Auctioneers reserve the right to withdraw, consolidate or divide any lot or lots or to submit them in any order they deem fit.
3. The Purchaser to give their name and dwelling place when registering and pay for all lots at the close of the sale. No lot or lots shall be removed from the sale premises until paid for, and a pass-out slip obtained from the Auctioneers clerk.
4. Notwithstanding the foregoing and the following Condition 3 each and every lot shall immediately at the fall of the hammer be considered as delivered and be and remain in every respect at the absolute risk and expense of the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof and shall be removed from the sale at the Purchaser's expense on the day of the sale.
5. Purchasers shall pay for any damage done by themselves or their agents during the removal of their lots, the amount of such damage to be assessed by the Auctioneers. Any person attending the premises does so at his own risk and neither the Vendor nor the Auctioneers will be responsible for any damage or accident howsoever caused.
6. If any lot is not paid for in cash under Condition 1 above but payment is made by cheque or other form of negotiable instrument then the lot shall remain the sole and absolute property of the Vendor as legal and equitable owner until such time as all money due to the Vendor has been paid by the Purchaser. Payment shall unless otherwise agreed be made to the Auctioneers and shall not be deemed to have been paid until any cheque or other negotiable instrument has been cleared by the Auctioneers Bankers.
7. All statements in the catalogue or any made by the Auctioneers at the time of the sale, also the identification of the animals, are the entire responsibility of the Vendor. The Auctioneers take no personal responsibility for the correctness of any such statement or identities. Intending Purchasers must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to the physical condition of any lot. Neither the Auctioneers, nor has any person in the employment of the Auctioneers, any authority to make or give any representation or warranty in respect of any lot.
