We are pleased to have received instructions to offer For Sale this well looked after detached property. We encourage prospective purchasers to arrange a mutual inspection at their earliest convenience in order to avoid disappointment. The accommodation is complemented externally by the modern utility room (see photo) and the multi-purpose double garage which is currently part utilised as a gym. There is ample off-road parking, and the large garden is level with workshop and polytunnel.

The village of Pontrhydfendigaid is located 15 miles inland from Aberystwyth and 6 miles North of the Market Town of Tregaron. Both the aforementioned towns have a good range of amenities to include Secondary Schools. Local amenities include a Primary School, village store and public house. Pontrhydfendigaid is situated in an area of outstanding natural beauty with Strata Florida Cistercian Abbey situated nearby as are the Teifi Pools, Cors Caron, Cambrian Mountains, and the Teifi River.
