Brynllywd
Alltglais
Clarach
Aberystwyth
SY23 3DH

Brynllywd enjoys an elevated North facing location and is set in approximately 2 acres of mainly natural wooded grounds (see plan) which are mainly sloping in nature. There are fantastic views over Cardigan Bay, and inland which prospective purchasers will appreciate during their inspection.

This period residence was originally built as the Dowager's Cottage for the former Plas Cwmcynfelin Estate. Brynllywd has been refurbished to a high standard and has the benefit of a new air source central heating system with under floor heating on the ground floor. The property is very well insulated with recently fitted kitchen and new bathroom suites. The electrical wiring is modern, and the private drainage system has recently been renewed. The accommodation is highlighted on the attached floor plan. In addition to the 3 bedrooms, there is ladder access to the additional spacious attic room.

The University and Market Town of Aberystwyth is within 2 miles travelling distance. There are a number of public footpaths nearby which lead to the town, University Campus, the Coastal path and Constitution Hill.

Aberystwyth is the largest town in Ceredigion and has a good range of local and National retailers in addition to social, leisure and educational facilities.
